Teaching Methodology

The instructor will present introductory material and will guide the students in commentaries, discussions, and analysis of the assigned readings. Student preparation for and participation in class is vital. Students will express their ideas and opinions individually and in groups both orally and written formats on different literary works and on the American authors who wrote them—as well as use situational ethics in which to analyze and discuss the literary works within the course anthology.

Metodología: La profesora presentará material introductorio y guiará a los comentarios, discusiones y análisis de las lecturas asignadas a los y las estudiantes. La preparación para y la participación en clase por parte de los y las estudiantes es fundamental. Los y las estudiantes expresarán sus ideas y opiniones tanto en forma oral como escrita sobre diferentes obras literarias estadounidenses y sus autores, individualmente y en grupos—además de utilizar la ética situacional en el que analizar y discutir las lecturas del curso dentro de la antología del curso.

Description of Course Assignments/ Descripción de las tareas del curso

- ✓ Presentation on one Literary Period and its Noteworthy Authors: Students will present one Literary Period and its Noteworthy Authors in groups of two to three students...NOTE: groups of 3 students will only be considered if all the literary periods have a group to present each of them. (First come... first serve on your choice of Period). Students should take into account the history read when presenting and create a problem solving activity to check the groups understanding of the material as well as create a summary of the material to be emailed to each course member. Be creative and use technology wherever possible. You have approximately 40 min. of class time for this presentation. Presentations will be graded on the following aspects:
 - E-mailed summary that contains relevant information about the socio-historical conditions of the period and the corresponding literary productions This should be sent to each course member ---no later than the day of the presentation (2%).
 - Use of creative techniques such as a movie presentation, drama, documentary, talk show(s), etc. which brings to life the historical literary period, the authors and their works (2%).
 - Language performance (2%) will be evaluated as well content on the historical period, the authors and their works (2%), evaluation activity based on the presentation content (1%) & presentation techniques (1%).
- ✓ Essay: Students are to read one novel, My Antonia, and one play, "Our Town". Students are to research the literary work (author, era, etc) on the web and other sources. This should then be used to help build the framework/outline towards the creation of a five paragraph essay. The essay must follow the specifics found within the breakdown of the undergraduate student quality paragraph—see the attachment.

NOTE: Any suspected plagiarism will result in the loss of the 20% essay grade as well as not following the breakdown guidelines in the creation of the paragraph.

- Pop Quizzes: Pop quizzes will be given throughout the semester. A total of 6 pop quizzes will be applied. These short tests consist of two to five questions which will be dictated at any time during the class session. Anyone who is not present without a written excuse will automatically obtain a zero for said quiz. It is recommended that on the occasion a student is unable to attend a class session: (1) the student should inform the professor of the situation prior to the class session and (2) bring a written excuse to class within a week of the absence in order to not receive the said zero. Note: a 15 min break will be given around 3pm. Students should keep in mind that quiz(zes) may be given at the end of a break period, at the beginning of class, towards the last 8 min of class, or when several students are noted to be absent when class is in session. The quiz questions may be specific in nature concerning the material read or explained in class or as simple as explaining why one enjoyed or did not care for a reading selection.

Course Policies

- ✓ Reading assignments must be completed before the class under which they are indicated in the Schedule of Topics of this syllabus.
- ✓ All papers will be assigned by the professor. Any paper that does not fulfill the assignment will receive a failing grade.
- ✓ Papers must be typewritten, double-spaced in no larger than 12 pitch, and students must adhere to proper MLA format in the typing and preparation of their essay.
- ✓ Be it from the internet or any other source, plagiarism will be punished as harshly as university regulations permit. To plead ignorance about what constitutes plagiarism is not a legitimate defense. The use of material that is not your own - be it a phrase, idea, or word - without giving due credit to the author of that material is considered cheating.
- ✓ As always, pay careful attention to any changes in the syllabus we might agree upon.
- ✓ Late work will not be accepted.
- ✓ Please note that university rules clearly and emphatically stipulate that all cell phones must be turned off during class.
- ✓ The passing grade is 7.0. An 'Ampliacion' Exam will be given to those students who have obtained a 6.0 to a 6.5.

Background:

- ◆ During the fifteenth century Medieval Europe experienced a great stability which originated the foundation of the Renaissance. This created a special interest on the discovery of technological accomplishments¹.
- ◆ People were gazing for new horizons in religion, art, politics, and geography².
- ◆ Eyes were turned towards America, and then, exploration-exploitation began.

Geographical Groups:

The United States was divided into:

a. New England Colonies

- formed by Puritans³ and Pilgrims who looked for religious freedom.
- Puritan redemption was based on a strict code of morality and proper behavior
- mostly established in the New England towns, puritans' activities were centered on shipbuilding companies, trading, and fishing.
- they emphasized on reading and education where the sermon was the literary form of popularity.

b. Middle Colonies

- nicknamed the "bread colonies"
- ethnically diverse and culturally mixed⁴
- their activities were based on agriculture, manufacturing, and commerce.
- religious tolerance. Quakers' great influence.

c. Southeast Colonies

- mostly farmers with large plantations that required a huge work force
- this colonies produced less writing than New England colonies.
- religion was an integral part of life but not a means of strong domination.
- William Byrd is most important southern writer.

Explorers and Native Americans

- Columbus: his influence on Spain. Wrote letters famous letters describing Indians and the beauty of nature. E.g. A spectacle of great beauty.
- Cabeza de Vaca: wrote journey narrations about nature and wilderness. E.g. The narrative of Alvar Nuñez.
- John Smith: wrote True Relation, the first hand narrative about the English settlement in the new world. Also, he wrote The New Land which is a description of New England.
- William Bradford: wrote about the divine mission. Eg. The History of Plymouth Plantation.
- Sara Kemble Knight: wrote of her Journal of Madam Knight
- William Byrd: wrote about the human and curiosities using a witty style presenting the contrast between New England and the Southern culture.

¹ Such as the printing press machine.

² Columbus in America

³ Named Puritans because their attempt to purify the England Church

⁴ Formed by Duchess, Swedish, Germans, French refugees.

Native Americans

- They wrote about the welfare of all. E.g. A Song to a New Chief, The Iroquois Constitution (Dakanowidah), Making Peace with the Indians (Robert La Salle)

Divines and Poets

- Cotton Matter: Emphasized topics related to witchcraft.
- Jonathan Edwards: wrote Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God. He was a leader and later became a critic of the religious revival called The Great Awakening.
- Anne Bradstreet: her poems reflect emotional depth and sensibility. E.g. To my dear and Loving Husband.
- Edward Taylor: his writing relates religious themes and everyday situations. E.g. Housewife and Make Me, oh Lord.
- Phillis Wheatly: she was considered the pioneer of imaginative literature. Her work is unique because after learning English, she became a prominent writer.
At this point, American Literature started to illustrate the desire for independence.
- Philip Freneau: called the father of American poetry, he used a fanciful treatment of nature. Also, he introduced the lyric using descriptive verses. The themes he developed were: politics and freedom and nature and romantic fancy. Wrote: The Rising Glory of America.

Philosophers and Statesmen

At the half of the 18th century, many changes were produced:

- Begin the spirit of liberty
- Schools were established
- Commerce was thriving
- Population multiplied
- Preachers and theologians were replaced by philosophers, statesmen, pamphleteers and poet

Representative Writers:

- Benjamin Franklin: Embodied the aspiration for literary and political independence. Wrote: A Witch Trial and Mount Holly.
- Hector John de Crevecoeur: focused on the question of originality and national distinction. Wrote: Letters from an American Farmer and What is an American.
- Thomas Jefferson: wrote the most prominent work about nationhood: Declaration of Independence which is the core of American identity and expression.
